(12) "Material Modification" in any approved Related Party Transaction shall mean any deviation of 25% or more in any of the condition of the Related Party Transactions which have been pre-approved by the Audit Committee of the company.

Any other term not defined herein shall have the same meaning as defined in the Companies Act, 2013 and the SEBI LODR , 2015.

Arm's length principle:

All RPTs should generally be entered into by the Company on an arm's length basis, i.e. as if the parties were unrelated, so that there is no conflict of interest.

All Related Party Transactions and subsequent material modifications must be reported to the Audit Committee and referred for prior approval of the Committee or the Board or the Shareholders as required under this Policy.

1) Identification of Related Party Transactions:

- a. Every Director and the Key Managerial Personnel will be responsible for providing a declaration in the prescribed format on an annual basis to the Company Secretary and will also be responsible to update the Company Secretary of any subsequent material modifications therein immediately.
- b. The Company Secretary shall maintain an updated database of Company's related parties containing the names of individuals and entities, identified on the basis of the definition set forth in the definition section above and the declaration as received from the Directors and Key Managerial Personnel. The database shall be reviewed quarterly by the Company Secretary and the Functional Heads looking after Accounts and Finance function.
- c. Every Director, Key Managerial Personnel, Functional Heads and/or Company Secretary will be responsible for providing prior notice to the Board/Audit Committee of any potential Related Party Transaction and subsequent material modification thereof, including any additional information about the transaction that the Board/ Audit Committee may reasonably request. This will provide the Board/ Audit Committee members adequate time and information to consider and review the proposed transaction(s).
- d. The Board/ Audit Committee will determine whether the transaction, in fact, constitute a Related Party Transaction requiring compliance with this policy. The Board/ Audit Committee may delegate such powers to the officer(s) of the Company as it deems fit.

2) Approval for Related Party Transactions

The Company shall not enter into any Related Party Transaction except as stated hereinafter:

a) Transactions requiring approval of Audit Committee:

- All Related Party Transactions and subsequent material modifications thereof shall require approval of the Audit Committee.

- Except for transactions between the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary/(ies) ("wos") whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting of the Company for approval, all Related Party Transactions and subsequent material modifications shall require a prior approval of the Audit Committee. Provided that any Related Party Transaction which is not in the ordinary course of business or not at arm's length shall also require a prior approval of the Shareholders.

b) Omnibus Approval of the Audit Committee:

The Audit Committee shall grant omnibus approval to Related Party Transactions that are:

- i. Repetitive in nature; and/or
- ii. Entered in the ordinary course of business and are at Arm's Length. Such omnibus approval will be granted to the transactions which, in addition to meeting the above criteria, also satisfy the following considerations:
  - a. The transaction in question is necessary to be executed as it is in the business interest of the Company;
  - b. If the transaction to be entered into with a Related Party is concerning technology transfer, intellectual property or specialized services that are proprietary in nature;
  - c. The requisite information is presented to the Audit Committee's satisfaction, to confirm that the transaction is at Arm's Length and in ordinary course of business;
- iii. Such omnibus approval shall specify:
  - a. the name/s of the Related Party, nature of transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into,
  - b. the indicative value and the formula for variation in the value, if any and
  - c. such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit;
- iv. Such omnibus approval shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approval after the expiry of one year.
- v. In case of any Related Party Transactions that cannot be foreseen or transactions in respect of which complete details are not available, the Audit Committee may grant an omnibus approval for such transactions provided that the value does not exceed Rs.1 crore per transaction in a financial year
- vi. The Audit Committee shall on quarterly basis review the details of the Related Party Transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to the omnibus approval. In an unforeseen event where a Related Party Transaction is to be entered, for which Omnibus approval has not been given by the Audit Committee, needs to be entered due to business exigencies between two Audit Committee meetings, the Audit Committee may approve such Related Party Transaction by passing a resolution by circulation, after satisfying itself that such transaction is in the interest of the Company.

c) Transactions requiring approval of Board:

Following transactions shall require a prior approval of the Board:

- All Related Party Transactions and subsequent material modifications thereof which are not in the ordinary course of business or not at arm's length price.
- Material Related Party Transactions.

Any member of the Board who has a potential interest in such Related Party Transaction will rescue him or herself and shall not vote for the approval of such Related Party Transaction.

d) Transactions requiring approval of Shareholders of the Company:

- All Material Related Party Transactions shall require approval of the Shareholders of the Company by way of a special resolution passed at the general meeting of the Company; and all Related Parties shall not vote to approve such resolution irrespective of whether the entity is a party to the particular transaction or not. However, the said provision is not applicable in respect of the transactions entered into between a holding company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.
- All Related Party Transactions and subsequent material modifications thereof which are not in the ordinary course of business or not at arm's length and which are in excess of the limits prescribed under the Act as amended from time to time requiring the approval of shareholders, shall require an approval of the Shareholders by way of a special resolution passed at the general meeting of the Company; and in such cases, the Related Party/(ies) to the transaction shall not vote to approve such resolution. Provided that the conditions mentioned in the said clauses shall not be applicable to the transactions entered into between a holding company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.

e) Approval & Review Mechanism:

- a. While seeking the approval of the Audit Committee, Board or the Shareholders, all information that is relevant and necessary to the Related Party Transaction and as prescribed under the Law shall be duly provided to the Audit Committee, Board or Shareholders, as the case may be.
- b. Any Director or Key Managerial Personnel who is interested in any Related Party Transaction shall not be present at the meeting of the Board or Audit Committee during discussions on the subject matter of the resolution relating to such transaction.
- c. The Audit Committee shall review, on a quarterly basis, the details of All Related Party Transactions and subsequent material modifications thereof entered into by the Company. On a quarterly basis, the management shall submit a report to the Audit Committee providing a comparison between the approvals granted and the actual transactions.

3. General

- a. Every RPT within the meaning of Section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013 shall be entered into the register required to be kept under Section 189 of the Companies Act, 2013.
